ANARCHISTS RING BLAMED

Secret Service Agents Throughout Country Seek Those Responsible for Bomb Outrages

ATTEMPTS IN MANY CITIES

Officials Believe That Same Gang
That Threatened May Day Tragedy is Responsible

(By United Press.)

Pittsburg, June 3.—With fifteen suspects under arrest police and agents of the department of justice continued today to tighten the strings of the net thrown out for anarchists, who with heavily charged bombs, wrecked six residences here.

All of the suspects are aliens and were well known radical agitators of the Pittsburg district, it was stated. The names of the men were withheld by the police.

Washington, June 3.—With the ablest secret service and explosive experts in the government working on the plot to kill Attorney General Palmer here last night, clues were being pursued to many points in the east today.

Evidence thus far uncovered led officials to believe the terrorists operating in several eastern cities either came from Philadelphia or Patterson, New Jersey.

The anarchist killed here by his own death weapon was an "old hand" at the game, according to experts. The bomb he used was the same kind employed by Frank Holt on July 2, 1915, when he attempted to blow up the capitol here.

Dr. Charles Monroe, explosive expert, who worked on the Holt case and who is now inspecting the plot to kill the attorney general, believes it is the same organization that employed Holt.

As the police today continued to investigate, they discovered a Baltimore and Ohio railway ticket on the remains of the dead anarchist, showing it had been purchased at Philadelphia.

That the terrorists were prepared for an emergency was shown by the fact that the anarchist wore a blacked derby while another soft hat purchased recently in Philadelphia, was found in the suit case, probably to wear away from the scene.

That he met his death by stumbling near the front of the residence of Palmer, exploding the bomb, was the decision of the investigators.

Following a thumb by the police lead Inspector Grant to declare that there was sufficient evidence on hand to establish soon the identity of the plotters.

Prints taken of the thumb found were rushed to police headquarters in several eastern cities.

Washington, June 3.—Secret service agents throughout the country today hunted the anarchist ring believed responsible for a bold attempt upon the life of Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer here last night and an effort to kill prominent persons elsewhere in the United States.

In the scattered remains of the terrorist here who was blown to fragments by the bomb which ripped open the front of the Palmer house and shattered windows and furniture in Washington's most fashionable districts, is the only clue the police have as to who is behind the death plot.

That it may be the same gang that threatened the May day tragedy is the belief of officials here today.

Working on this theory some precautions is being taken to guard the homes of other government officials who, with Attorney General Palmer, Continued on Page Two Stiers, Taylor Lakin, Wade Sherman, Willard H. Amos, Lon Dougherty, J. F. Fore, David Compton, Floyd Hogsett, Charles French and Robert Mansfield.

MARION FARMERS MEET

Reports Show That Agricultural Men Have Banded Together

(By United Press.)

Marion, Ind., June 3.—Expansion to accommodate the membership demands was to be considered by farmers of the fourth district of the Indiana Federation of Farmers' associations, who assembled at Marion today.

Reports from each county showed that the majority of the farmers in the fourth district have banded together and that practically every local or township organization had affiliated with the county association.

Counties comprising the fourth district are: Adams, Blackfoot, Grant, Howard, Huntington, Clinton, Jay, Miami, Wabash and Wells.

PITTMAN TRIAL BEGINS

The case of the state against Ernest Pittman, of near New Salem, charged with forgery was started on the Decatur circuit court yesterday. A jury was empaneled shortly after noon and the evidence was being taken about two o'clock. Several witnesses from this county were called.

LAND AVERAGES $149.09 AN ACRE

Assessments on Real Estate and Improvements Are Tripled This Year—$50.50 in 1918

TOTAL MORE THAN DOUBLED

Taxables Exclusive of Carthage and Corporations Assesses by State Board $49,532,904

Unofficial tabulations of the assessments on all taxable property in Rush county, exclusive of Carthage corporation, which has not been turned in, show the total to be more than double the sum on which taxes were paid last year, and the average valuation of lands and improvements this year is $149.09 an acre as compared with $50.59 for the last four years.

Taxables of the county, exclusive of Carthage corporation and the banks, public utilities and corporations assessed by the state board of tax commissioners, amount to $49,532,904. Last year the valuation was $23,263,759. A net gain in valuation was made in every township in the county, some of them almost tripling last year's assessments.

The average for land and improvements this year is more than three times as high in some townships as it has been for the last four years. The valuations as computed by Earl Priest, county assessor, follow:

Township	1918	1919
Anderson	$52.19	$151.86
Posey	48.72	151.12
Center	49.57	150.84
Union	51.00	150.27
Richland	48.19	146.50
Noble	53.08	149.76
Walker	52.71	151.11
Rushville	51.29	165.09
Washington	49.06	151.10
Jackson	52.53	158.93
Ripley	46.47	129.37
Orange	49.34	135.26

Ripley township assessments, which were reported last night, amount to $3,525,465 exclusive of Carthage as compared with $1,456,890 last year. Lands and improvements are valued at $2,906,635 this year and last year were $1,022,570.

Lands without improvements were increased from $887,250 to $2,617,100 and improvements were advanced from $135,320 to $289,535. Personal property jumped from $427,845 to $618,930.

Rushville townships, including the city of Rushville, was the only township in the county which did not double the valuation of its taxable property this year. The totals taken from the assessor's books, however, show that the assessments were almost doubled, for last year's valuation in the township was $4,435,020 and this year it is $8,247,360.

Rushville city lots, both platted and unplatted, together with their improvements, are valued this year at $1,645,240, which is a loss of $301,665. This loss is more than made up, however, by more than tripling personal property valuations in the city. Last year they were $489,010 and this year they are $1,661,515. The combined total of all kinds of property in the city this year is $3,306,755 and last year it was $2,436,915.

Unplatted lots are valued this year at $53,570 and platted lots at $685,320, making the total on lots in the city $738,890 as compared with $633,805 last year, only a gain of $105,085. Improvements on both kinds of lots in the city this year were valued at $904,355 as compared with $1,313,300 last year, a loss of $408,945.

The slight net gain in the city is increased considerably by the big increases made in assessments in the township outside of Rushville. Continued on Page Six

HIGHEST FOR THIS MONTH IN 24 YEARS

Temperature Sets New Mark For June in More Than Two Decades by Reaching 90

RELIEF FROM HEAT IN SIGHT

Rains, Hail Storms and Near Tornadoes Are Reported From Several Parts of State

The temperature today reached a height for June that is exceeded only by the record of June 2, 1895. Shortly after two o'clock yesterday afternoon the mercury stood at 89.2 degrees and it is thought that had not clouds relieved the situation, the mercury would probably have gone higher. The record for the same day in June 1895 was 97 degrees.

This morning the thermometer stood at 80 degrees shortly after 9 o'clock and before an hour had passed it had climbed two and a half degrees higher. Before eleven o'clock the mercury had reached 88 degrees. Shortly before 12 o'clock it stood at 89 and soon after one it was ranging around 90. It was thought by many that it would continue to go still higher during the afternoon.

It was believed last evening shortly before dark that the weather man's predictions during the last few days would become a reality but such was not the case. When the wind came up strong from the west last night it looked as if the long looked for rain which the weather man has been predicting, was sure to come. Rains and hail storms were reported from all sections of the state yesterday, and Newcastle, the scene of a storm a few years ago was again visited by a near tornado when property to the extent of several thousands of dollars was damaged and destroyed. The excitement was said to rival that of 1917 when $1,000,000 worth of property was destroyed and twenty-four lives were lost. Windmills, barns and other small buildings were razed by the storm yesterday.

The vicinity of Richmond was the scene of a heavy hail and rain storm but it did not do any damage to the crops. Farmers in that section of the state said that the rain was worth several thousands of dollars to them.

CONTRACTS FOR FOUR ROADS ARE AWARDED

One Bidder on Each of the Ruby, Peck and Hildreth Highways to be Built This Summer.

TWO MACADAM; ONE GRAVEL

The county commissioners late yesterday afternoon awarded the contracts for three roads, with only one bid submitted on each job. The Gabe Hildreth highway went to Amos U. Stevens of near New Salem for $8,595, the Edgar N. Ruby road to D. N. Fout of Indianapolis for $12,595 and the Lacyette Peck road to Moor & Crise Construction company of Greensburg for $15,980.

Gabe Hildreth was appointed superintendent of construction of the Hildreth road and the bond of Jesse A. Leisure as superintendent of the Fred McMann and Chester Cross roads was approved.

The Ruby road is in Ripley township and is to be constructed of gravel. The Peck and Hildreth roads will be macadam, the former being in Orange township and the latter in Richland.

"Certain Interests" Possess it, Senator Borah Says

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 3.—"Certain interests" in New York City are in possession of the full text of the treaty with Germany, declared Borah on the floor of the senate today.

Senator Lodge declared he had a copy of the treaty in his hands yesterday. "The treaty is in New York," Lodge declared flatly. "I had a copy in my hands yesterday."

BILL TO GIVE THIS CITY GERMAN CANNON

One Introduced by Rep. Elliott Providing Hun Field Piece Shall be Delivered Here

FOR A SOLDIERS MEMORIAL

Richard N. Elliott of Connersville, representative of the sixth Indiana district in congress, has introduced a bill in the house of representatives directing the secretary of war to deliver a captured German cannon to Rushville.

It will be recalled that directly after it was announced that the government had decided to ship captured German cannon back to the United States to be given to American towns and citizens, an application was promptly sent to Washington to Senator James E. Watson and Rep. Elliott for one of them.

Others bills introduced by Rep. Elliott provide captured German field pieces for the county seats of the various other counties in the sixth Indiana congressional district. The bill to give Rushville a cannon says that it shall be displayed in Rushville, Ind., as a memorial to the soldiers, sailors and marines of Rush county, Indiana, who participated in the world war.

AUTOMOBILE TURNS OVER

Three Young Men Narrowly Escape Death West of Clarksburg

Carlos Hite and Louis and Walter Springmeyer of near Clarksburg escaped serious injury Sunday afternoon when the automobile in which they were riding turned turtle a mile and a half west of Clarksburg. The car was only slightly damaged. A broken spindle was the cause of the accident. The fact that the car was running slowly at the time of the mishap probably saved the occupants from serious injury. Hite was driving at the time of the accident.

MANDATORIES FOR GERMANY IS URGED

American Economic Experts Advocate Enemy be Assisted to Make Good Obligations

MODIFICATION IS FAVORED

Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau Said to be Agreed on Availability of Such Action

(By United Press.)

Paris, June 3.—American economic experts in conference with President Wilson today advocated that Germany be given mandates over former East African colonies to assist her to make financial obligations made upon by Premier Lloyd George's proposal that Upper Silesia be returned to Germany for economic reasons.

American experts suggested that Poland retain Upper Silesia and Germany, be given supervision of her recent East African possessions.

In addition to this question the American commissioners discussed the entire problem of reparation of the war.

The president instructed the American experts to meet the British and French conferees and draw up final conclusions.

From authoritative sources, it was learned today that Wilson, Lloyd George and Clemenceau are now agreed on the advisability of modifying the treaty. The question now was said to be the degree of modification necessary and when it should be done.

Lloyd George is understood to favor changing the terms before compelling the Germans to sign.

Clemenceau is reported to insist on the present treaty being signed and that it should then be reopened for such modifications as deemed necessary.

The president's view as to when the modifications should be made could not be obtained, but it is learned that he is in favor of the modification.

Austria is left by the treaty submitted yesterday a state of a whole of six million or seven million people, inhabiting a territory of between fifty and sixty thousand square miles. She is required to recognize the complete independence of Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Serb-Croat-Slovene state to cede other territories which previous in union with her composed the empire of Austro-Hungary with a population of fifty million people.

Part one of the treaty containing the covenant of the league of nations and part twelve containing the labor convention are identical with the corresponding sections of the German treaty. Part six dealing with the prisoners of war and graves and part eleven with aerial navigation, are also identical with the exception of substitution of names.

Part thirteen of the German treaty containing guarantee execution is also parallel to the Austrian treaty.

Austria is recognized as a new and independent state under the name of the Republic of Austria.

The northern frontier facing Czechoslovakia shows an existing administrative boundary, formerly separating the province of Bohemia and Moravia from those of the upper and lower Austrian provinces subject to certain minor ratifications. The southern frontier facing Italy and the Serb-Croat-Slovene state is to be fixed on the principles of the allies and associated powers at a later date.

ORGANIZE FOR BETTER HERDS

Farmers Forming Associations for Purpose of Introducing Bulls of Merit of Single Breed.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The co-operative bull association is an effective organization for freeing a community from the exasperating experience of the scrub bull that roams at large. There is scarcely a breeder who has not experienced keen disappointment and financial loss through unrestrained scrub bulls. In the territory covered by a co-operative bull association in one state only one scrub bull was found where, prior to the organization of the association, there had been 30 scrub bulls. The 30 scrubs have been replaced with five registered bulls. The organization of farmers into an association for the purpose of introducing bulls of merit of a single breed and the elimination of the scrub bull signifies that a definite plan for community herd improvement has been agreed upon.

There is at present a widespread interest on the part of individual farmers in herd improvement through the use of better sires. The winter season affords an opportune time to discuss the subject with one's neighbors and to perfect the organization of such an association. Farmers' Bulletin 983, "Co-operative Bull Associations," which may be secured through application to the United States department of agriculture, gives information regarding these associations and practical methods of forming one.

Note the flexible movement of the cutter bar which permits close cutting over rough ground, the one-piece main frame with all holes drilled in one operation to secure perfect alignment of parts, the covered gears and the special quality steel ball and roller bearings, etc.

Still another point—the ledger plate on the Deering mower extends the full length of the cutting surface of the guard, giving the advantage of a complete shear cut, whether the knife section is old or new. Americans the Pathfinders.

It was natural that an American flying machine driven by an American should be the first to make a trans-Atlantic flight. The ingenuity of the Yankee is accepted as a fact. Europeans marveled at the feat of Americans in the world war, while the majority of Americans at home took it as a matter of course, expecting American resourcefulness to meet the situation.

The achievement of Lieut. Commander Read and his crew was a fitting close to the century which began with the first trans-Atlantic voyage by steam, also accomplished by an American-built vessel and operated by Americans. That message, "What God has wrought", which was transmitted between Washington and Baltimore in 1844 on the inauguration of another American device, the telegraph, by its American inventor, Samuel Finley Morse, has been applicable to many wonderful devices in aid of commerce in the century between the first trans-Atlantic steamship and trans-oceanic fliers, both of them American.

The "Savannah" constructed by an American ship builder in New York City, with engines built in New Jersey and commanded by an American skipper, left Savannah on May 26, 1919 arriving in Liverpool June 20, while just one century later—almost to the day—an American aeroplane invented by an American

In sticking up for our rights, a lot of us overlook our duties.

There are no known limits for the man who is in deadly earnest.

Great things are ahead for the man who keeps his word and is always on time.

Things we do not understand are either implicitly believed or deeply distrusted.

The demand for Men Who Can Do Things is the one demand that never was and never will be filled.

The workman who says, "I wasn't hired to do that," will soon find out that nobody will hire him to do anything.

Hez Heck says: "So far as the records go, the world has always raised two things in great abundance—hell and kids."

constructed in our workshops and operated by American made the first trans-Atlantic flight. Morse's device, the telegraph, was the second of the great American inventions in behalf of transportation, for the telegraph is as much a transporter in its way as is the steamship or the flying machine and has contributed greatly to the wonderful development of commerce during the century, through the facility which it gives for instantaneous communication between seller and buyer the world over. Quickly following this came another American triumph, in the ocean cable, in which the leading spirit was also our own, Cyrus W. Field, by which it became practicable in 1858 to send messages across the Atlantic and later under the oceans of the entire world. By 1876 still another American, Alexander Graham Bell, had been granted a patent for the telephone and this was soon put into practical use for business and personal inter-communication between individuals in cities and later between cities, then across the American continent and finally across the ocean.

While railway transportation which has developed in the same century having been put into practical use a little later than the voyage of the "Savannah", cannot be claimed as distinctly an American device, the construction of railways in the States began only three years later than the Stockton and Darlington Railway in England, which is looked upon as the beginning of the steam railway system of the world. As to wireless telegraphy, Italy is clearly entitled to that honor. Americans, however, may justly claim the honor of a majority of the great devices for transportation of merchandise, men and communications between men which have developed during the wonderful century, in which steam power and electricity followed by power generated by the internal combustion engine have so revolutionized commerce that the value of the world's international trade grew from less than $2000,000,000 in 1819 to more than $50,000,000,000 in 1919 while our own international trade meantime has grown from 157,000,000 in 1819 to nearly $10,000,000,000 in 1919.

And this century of commercial development is only the beginning of great things in international trade. The steamship has grown from a carrying capacity of 300 tons by the "Savannah" in 1819 to more than 30,000 tons by the large steamships of today and some of the big vessels which have recently transported our soldiers from Europe carried more than 12,000 persons on a single voyage. The length of world railway lines has grown from 200 miles in 1830 to 725,000 miles at the present time and the carrying power of freight car from about 5 tons per car in the early days of railroad operation to 50 tons per car at the present time. The telegraph lines have grown from 5,000 miles in 1840 to 1,500,000 miles of line and 6,000,000 miles of wire and the cables from 1,500 miles in 1860 to 335,000 miles at the present time. The number of telephones in use in the United States alone has advanced from about 50,000 in 1880 to 12,000 at the present time and approximately 20,000,000 the world over, and the length of the telephone wires is far greater than that of the telegraph, the United States alone having over 20,000,000 miles and the whole world approximately 40,000,000 miles.

sent time and approximately 20,000,000 the world over, and the length of the telephone wires is far greater than that of the telegraph, the United States alone having over 20,000,000 miles and the whole world approximately 40,000,000 miles.

With this basis of transportation facilities which the last century has furnished coupled with the 50,000 aeroplanes left over from war and now being utilized in the establishment of air routes for transporting men and merchandise and with the experts in Washington now telling us that flying machines will soon be developed which will carry 200 tons of freight, and with equally wonderful developments in the use of the horseless vehicle on land, we may expect for the next century even greater wonders than those of the century just ended, and especially as world facilities for financing international trade are making as great and wonderful developments as are those of commerce.

No thank you, Mr. Trotsky! The world in general at present prefers spring green to revolutionary red.

AS YOUNG AS YOUR KIDNEYS

The secret of youth is ELIMINATION OF POISONS from your body. This done, you can live to be a hundred and enjoy the good things of life with as much "pep" as you did when in the springtime of youth. Keep your body in good condition, that's the secret.

Watch the kidneys. They filter and purify the blood, all of which blood passes through them once every three minutes. Keep them clean and in proper working condition and you have nothing to fear. Drive the poisonous wastes and deadly uric acid accumulations from your system. Take GOLD MEDAL HANDEL OIL Capsules and you will always be in good condition. You will feel strong and vigorous, with steady nerves and elastic muscles. GOLD MEDAL HANDEL OIL Capsules are imported direct from the laboratories at Haarlem, Holland.

They are a reliable remedy which has been used by the sturdy Dutch for over 200 years, and has helped them to develop into one of the strongest and healthiest races of the world. Get them from your druggist. Do not take a substitute. In sealed packages—three sizes.

There is a world of interest in reading advertisements

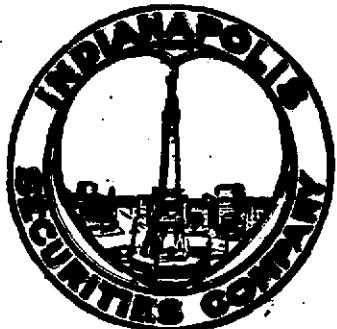

Your daily newspaper is far brighter and more interesting for the advertisements it contains. You get information from them. You learn all about many little things that are of so much personal importance in your life. They keep you posted. They tell you what is new and desirable.

Sometimes they keep you from making an unwise purchase by pointing out just the reasons why one article suits your needs better than another.

Reading advertisements helps you to economize. You know that economy is not alone a matter of saving money but of spending money to advantage. Advertising identifies goods of unquestioned value.

When a store or manufacturer puts a name on goods and tells you about them you may be sure they are worth while because it does not pay to advertise merchandise that is not good.

Make a practice of reading advertisements. Read them as news from the business world, published for your benefit. They will help you to live better and dress better and make more of your income in every way.

John Barrymore at Princess

John Barrymore is at the Princess today in "The Test of Honor," a picturization of E. Phillips Oppenheim's famous novel, "The Malefactor." Paramount Bray photograph will also be shown. Alice Brady in "The World to Live In" and Pathe News are advertised for tomorrow. The last three days of the week Brown's Saxophone Six, a high class musical attraction, in addition to the regular photoplay bill, will be offered.

The picture in which Barrymore is being starred today is a powerful photoplay in which the star plays the part of a man who sacrificed his career for a worthless woman, but who finds happiness in the end.

Story of Female Spy

"Luck and Pluck," the story of a female spy during war times, is the offering at the Mystic theatre tonight.

Work as a spy in wartime is about as hazardous an occupation as one could undertake. To be discovered means death. Yet history shows that many women have volunteered for such tasks. The present war has developed some female spies—chief among them being Mme. Le Brun.

This woman is of the beautiful French type, and her spy work has won the greatest honor the government can bestow upon a woman. She was in Germany for some time and it was while posing as an ardent defender of the Tenth cause that she ran down a traitor similar to Bolo Pasha.

She gained the confidence of a lieutenant in the German Secret Service, who became boastful. She went back to her own country, secured the arrest of two French women who proved to be German spies, then traced the man—who later was shot. She wanted to go back to Germany and continue the work, but her chief refused consent feeling sure she would be slain.

ROAD BUILDING

FIRM FOUNDATION FOR ROADS
Aim to Distribute Pressure Due to Wheels Concentrated on Surface—Look to Future.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The purposes of a foundation are to aid in distributing the pressure due to wheel loads concentrated on the road surface, so that the intensity of pressure on the subgrade will not exceed a safe unit-bearing power, and also to prevent, if possible, the crust of the road from being disturbed by the upward pressure of the subgrade due to the action of frost, ground water, or other disturbing influence. In the case of a pavement consisting of comparatively small blocks, such as vitrified brick, bonded to each other very slightly or not at all, an entire wheel load might be concentrated on only a few square inches of foundation, in which case it would be necessary for the foundation to take care of practically the entire distribution of the load. On the other hand, a monolithic pavement, in which the individual units are well bonded together, might distribute the wheel loads to obviate all necessity of further distribution by the foundation, and if adequate drainage were provided and there were no danger of heaving of subgrades, the foundation might be omitted entirely.

The heaviest vehicle that ordinarily has passed over a public highway heretofore is the 15-ton traction engine. Such engines are so designed that the rear axle carries about two-thirds of the total weight, which arrangement gives a concentrated pressure on the road surface of about five tons under each rear wheel. The use of much heavier equipment is in sight, however, and unless some regulations be passed to prohibit it, the occurrence of ten-ton, or even heavier motortrucks, may become common on highways adjacent to large cities or between large centers that are only a few miles apart.

In assuming the maximum wheel load for any particular road a reasonable allowance should be made for future increase. Since motortrucks have come into use there has been a constant tendency to increase both their rates of speed and the loads they carry, and it is probable that this tendency will continue. Furthermore, many roads not now subjected to motor-truck traffic will attract such traffic after they are improved, and this possibility always should be considered. Increase in the volume of traffic also may be an important factor.

VICTORY ANNOUNCEMENT

More Mileage Adjustment on Goodrich Tires

Fabrics - 6,000 Miles
Cords--8,000 Miles

TO automobile owners and drivers—to Goodrich Dealers—the B. F. Goodrich Rubber Company herewith declares a more-mileage adjustment on Goodrich Tires—6,000 miles for SAFETY TREADS, and 8,000 miles for SILVERTOWN CORDS.

Fix these new Goodrich Adjustment figures firmly in your mind—6,000 miles for SAFETY TREADS—8,000 miles for SILVERTOWN CORDS—instead of the 3,500 and 5,000 miles respectively heretofore in force.

This new adjustment stands back of all Goodrich Tires, including Tires already purchased in the hands of user or dealer.

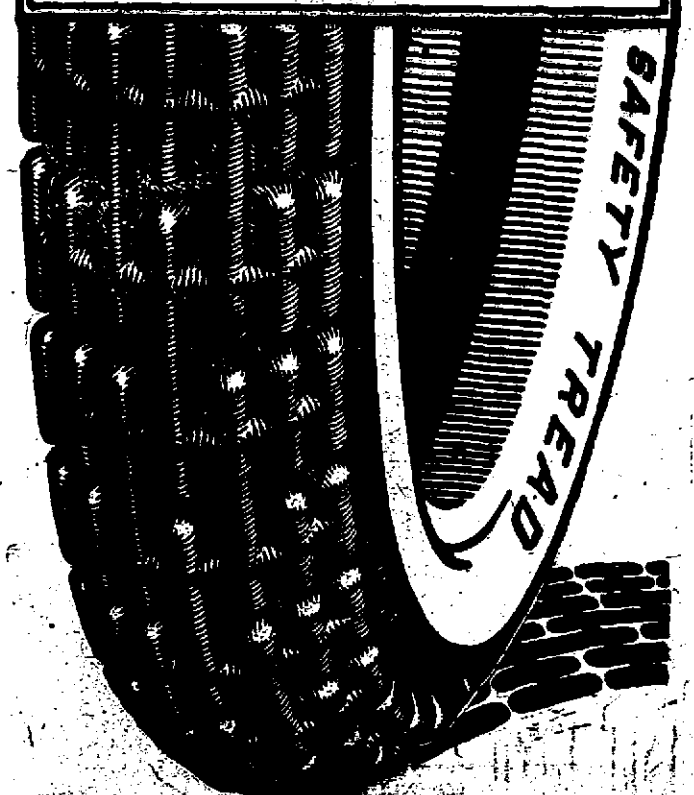

Goodrich Tires in actual usage are today unfolding such matchless mileage, regularly in excess of adjustment basis, that Goodrich knows it has the strongest, most durable tires the rubber industry has produced.

The Goodrich adjustment mileage is increased because Goodrich knows the mileage in its tires, and it wants to give every motorist a share in their economy.

Go to a Goodrich Dealer, and buy a Goodrich Tire, sure that with fair and square usage a Safety Tread will render you at least 6,000 miles; and a Silvertown Cord at least 8,000.

SENIOR DAY OBSERVED AT LOCAL HIGH SCHOOL

Time of the Play is in 1931 and Class is Portrayed in Light To Be

PROPHECY AND WILL READ

The graduating class of the local high school observed Senior Day yesterday afternoon when they portrayed the class as it will appear in 1931. The time of the interpretation was a reunion and as each member entered they were given a great ovation of those present. The 1919 jazz band furnished the music (noise) which was greatly enjoyed by those present.

The class will and prophecy was read and also the class history, which was a very complicated affair. The will was read by Miss Libby Schatz, who was able to talk just a part of the time as her gum was a great hindrance to clear speaking. Miss Lois Reeve also displayed her gum-chewing ability.

The boys of the class who had never sang before, sang a song entitled "I'll Say She Does." The various members of the class were dressed according to the profession they were following and the make-ups were of the very best. There were old maids, doctors, farmers, ministers, house keepers and orange growers at this reunion which was a very memorable occasion. In all respects the closing days for the class of 1919 have been of the brightest nature.

DESIGNING COSTUMES TO BE WORN AT METHODIST CENTENARY CELEBRATION

DESIGNS for thousands of costumes to be used in the pageants and life plays of the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., June 29 to July 13, are being prepared by Livingston Platt, the noted costume and scenic designer of New York, who has taken the big job of costuming appropriately all participants in the big exposition. Mr. Platt's designs range from the garb of the ancient Babylonians and their Jewish captives, worn in the first episode of the big pageant, "The Wayfarer," to the more modern dress of Belgian refugees in the war front scene. Seventy thousand yards of material have been ordered for the costumes used in the Centenary Celebration which marks in a spectacular and impressive manner the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Methodist missions. Mr. Platt has made research work for weeks through authentic pictorial records of costumes, ancient and modern. In addition to the costumes of Biblical times, he has imined plates of Japanese, Chinese and Hindoo garb.

If Hawker had had an air cooled motor in his airplane the story would have been different.

HOSTESS HOUSE FAMILY REUNION

How It Happened to Entertain Only A. E. F. Mother Who Visited Army of Occupation.

BIG CORPORAL DUTIFUL SON.

No Knightly Courtiers Ever Acted With More Gallantry to Lady Fair Than Did He and His Doughboy Pale to This Little White Haired Woman Dressed Exquisitely in Black.

By GRACE GOULDER. (With the American Y. W. C. A. Overseas.)

Coblentz, Germany, March 28 (By Mail.)

It happened right here in Coblentz. A big corporal came into the Y. W. C. A. Hostess House and asked for the director, Miss Ruth Woodsmall, who comes from Colorado Springs, Colo.

"Could my mother stay here?" he began at once, trying his best to cover his excitement.

"Your mother?" gasped Miss Woodsmall. "How did your mother ever get here?"

"Well, she isn't here yet, but if she comes will you keep her?"

"Of course I will, but—" She didn't finish, for the boy had snatched his cap back on his head and was out of the door on a run.

The corporal's visit remained a mystery for two days. Then one evening just at dusk a little white haired woman dressed exquisitely in black appeared in the sitting room of the Hostess House, and the corporal was hovering behind her, trying to be beside her and back of her and in front of her all at once. He was carrying her coat—a big fur one. With them were three doughboys, pals of the corporal. They tried to keep in the background, but their eyes were glued on her face.

Everyone in the sitting room sat at attention. There are no English speaking men or women out of uniform in the Third Army area. Yet here was a woman in civilian clothes. Mothers are unheard of with the army. But this was a mother, everyone knew. After awhile someone found out about this mother.

Had Been Interned During War. She and her husband, who were born in Germany, but had been naturalized, lived in San Francisco. Before the war they left for Weisbaden, Germany, that their invalid daughter might have treatment at this famous health resort.

They brought their other children with them. One was Walter, a small boy, and the other was Ralph, now Corporal Stepp of the American Army.

When the war was declared they sent Ralph back to America, because he was of military age, and they did not want him to fight for the kaiser. Then America entered the war.

Mrs. Stepp—Mrs. Anna Stepp she is—told this part of the story:

"Until a month ago I hadn't heard from Ralph for two years and a half—even before America got in the war null was held up. I didn't know whether he was in the army or not—but I was sure he was, because—well, because he is an American." Here she stopped a minute to smile up at him.

"After awhile we heard from some friends that he was in the army—and that he had come over here. That was all I ever knew. It's nearly five years since I have seen him!"

"Of course it was awful hard—I couldn't get word to him and he couldn't to me. My husband used to tell me it wouldn't help Ralph any for me to cry. I tried not to—before the rest of them—anyway. My daughter got worse steadily—she is no better. We couldn't get the proper food for her after awhile. And she hated to see me worried about Ralph, so I used to try to keep up before them.

"Last January my husband came to Coblentz about his citizen papers. An American soldier in Ralph's company who was in the office heard his name and asked him if he was any relation to Ralph. He didn't tell him Ralph was in Coblentz, but went after Ralph. He didn't tell Ralph his father was here. When they met they couldn't believe their eyes.

"Ever since then I have been trying to see Ralph. He couldn't come to Weisbaden because it was out of the American area, and I couldn't get through until today—more than two months."

They asked her if her Ralph had changed much in all that time.

"Oh, yes—very much. But do you know, I think it is because all that long time when I didn't know where he was or how he was—I got in the habit of thinking of him as he was when he was a baby—I kept seeing him as a baby and remembering the way he felt when he was little. Isn't that queer? And now look at him!"

And the corporal tried not to see the adoration in her eyes.

"Five years is a long time to wait to see your boy," she murmured, and kept her eyes on him. Again she had forgotten the people around her.

The corporal cleared his throat. "This is why I ask if you if you could keep my mother, Miss Woodsmall. I didn't want her to come unless she had a good place to stay. Ah, e—r—thanks awfully."

And that is the story of how the Hostess House happened to entertain the only known A. E. F. mother who visited the Army of Occupation.

America's Immortals

Most striking instances of gallantry for which the Distinguished Service Cross has been awarded

The blood of every loyal American will be stirred by the little stories of conspicuous bravery on the part of American soldiers in France that are printed below. These are only a few of thousands of cases of unusual gallantry that won for Pershing's fighters the Distinguished Service Cross. These cases have been picked out by General Pershing's staff as among the most notable of the thousands that are now a part of the official record of the American expeditionary forces.

GEORGE S. ROBB,

First Lieutenant, 369th Infantry. For conspicuous gallantry, beyond the call of duty, near Seclauit, France, September 29 and 30, Lieut. Robb was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross. While leading his platoon in the assault on Seclauit, Lieut. Robb was severely wounded by machine gun fire, but rather than go to the rear for proper treatment, he remained with his platoon, until ordered to the dressing station by his commanding officer. Returning within forty-five minutes, he remained on duty throughout the entire night, inspecting his lines and establishing outposts. Early the next morning he was again wounded, once again displaying remarkable devotion to duty by remaining in command of his platoon. Later the same day a bursting shell added two more wounds, the same shell killing his commanding officer and two officers of his company. He then assumed command of his company, and organized its position in the trenches. Displaying wonderful courage and tenacity at the critical times, he was the only officer of his battalion who advanced beyond the town and by clearing machine gun and sniping posts, contributed largely to the aid of his battalion in holding their objective. His example of bravery and fortitude and his eagerness to continue with his mission despite severe wounds, set before the enlisted men of his command a most wonderful standard of morale and self-sacrifice. Lieut. Robb's home address is 308 South Twelfth street, Salina, Kan., where his mother lives.

ANDREW B. LYNCH,

Second Lieutenant, 110th Infantry. Lieutenant Lynch was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for unusual bravery in action near Apremont, France, September 29, 1918. Lieutenant Lynch while a sergeant on duty with a 37 mm. gun section of his company was moving the guns to a more advantageous position when he learned that the officer in charge of the party had been captured by an enemy patrol. Organizing a group of five men, Lieutenant Lynch immediately attacked the Germans, killed 15 of them and liberated the officer. Immediately afterward Lieutenant Lynch took command of 75 men and launched a counter-attack on the enemy, driving him back for more than a kilometer. Lieutenant Lynch is married, his wife living at 2446 Franklin street, Philadelphia, Pa.

FRANK GAFFNEY,

Private, First Class, Company G, 108th Infantry. Private Gaffney earned his Distinguished Service Cross by conspicuous gallantry in action near Ronssoy, France, September 29, 1918. Private Gaffney, an automatic rifleman, pushed forward alone with his gun, after all the other members of his squad had been killed, discovered several Germans placing a heavy machine gun in position. He killed the crew, captured the gun, bombed several dugouts and, after killing four more of the enemy with his pistol, held the position until reinforcements came up, when eighty prisoners were captured. His home is in Lockport, N. Y., and his father is Wilber Gaffney, Chapel street.

FURNITURE DEALERS MEET

Indianapolis, Ind., June 3.—More than three hundred furniture dealers today opened the annual convention of the Indiana Retail Furniture Dealers' association. It was said that the demand for furniture during the last year or two has exceeded the supply and that the problem of the future is to supply the steadily increasing demand.

Vitality

VIM, VIGOR—"PEP"—the great needs of today, when men and women should have strength, fortitude and cheerfulness—these are denied the poor sufferer from kidney and bladder trouble.

That awful tired feeling, heaviness, languidness, soreness, stiffness, backache, rheumatic pains, limbo, painful bladder weakness and other symptoms soon disappear when the kidneys are strong and healthfully active.

Foley Kidney Pills

act promptly and effectively to restore weak, overworked or diseased kidneys and bladder to health and normal functioning. Their healing and curative qualities are guaranteed.

M. T. Weston, 325-10th Ave. W., Duluth, Minn., writes: "I am pleased to testify that Foley Kidney Pills have been the means of giving me relief from a case of kidney and bladder trouble which bothered me for some time."

Lima Beans

Lima beans are not adapted for planting in all parts of the United States, but they thrive in the greater part of the Northern and Western States, and certain of the smaller podded varieties do fairly well in parts of the South. Two types of Lima beans are in general cultivation—the pole, or climber, and the bush varieties. Lima beans should not be planted until the soil is thoroughly warm and all danger of frost or extremely cold nights is past.

While the pole varieties of Lima beans are most widely planted, it is a good plan to include a small planting of a good bush variety, as they will sometimes yield when the pole varieties are not producing. Some persons consider the bush varieties more tender and of better flavor than the pole varieties. One decided advantage of the pole varieties is that they may be trained to a fence or any other convenient support, and do not occupy much ground. The old-fashioned method was to train them to small poles, setting these poles three to four feet apart in each direction and planting three to five beans at the base of each pole and thinning to two plants in each hill.

Bush Limas are usually planted in rows three feet apart, three beans to the hill, and the hills eighteen inches apart in the row. Lima beans require a rich soil. In planting them the eye of the bean should always be placed downward. The seed should not be covered more than one inch unless the soil is exceptionally valuable as a food, and all that are not needed for immediate use during the summer may be dried for winter use.—United States Department of Agriculture.

U. S. WAR MACHINE STILL GRINDING

War Department at Present is Accepting Huge Quantities of War Material.

FINDS IT MUCH CHEAPER

Terminates by Cancellation Since Nov. 9 all But $350,000,000 Worth of Contracts

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 3.—America is finding it almost as difficult to stop her war preparation as it was to start it.

The War Department at present is accepting huge quantities of war material. Though most of it will not be needed in the near future, unless someone starts a new war, the army has found it cheaper to finish much of the work already begun when the armistice was signed than to abandon it.

Some of the items accepted since the armistice are: 976 75-millimeter guns (the famous French 75) with 5,567,000 rounds of high explosive and 2,751,000 rounds of shrapnel for them; 804 6-ton tanks (light Whippet type); 247 155-millimeter guns with 414,000 high explosive shells for them; 41,000 Browning machine guns; 118,000,000 pounds smokeless powder; 2,417 5-ton tractors for hauling heavy artillery; 124,000,000 pistol and 570,000,000 rifle cartridges; 666,000 tin hats; 56,800 inch howitzers 347,000 model 1917 rifles (modified Enfields); 115,000 automatic pistols; 12,000,000 pounds of T. N. T. and 25,000,000 pounds of ammonium nitrate.

In the case of tanks and 75-millimeter guns, over 90 percent of the total production was completed after the armistice. The largest percentage of any ordnance item to be delivered after the armistice was in the case of 155-millimeter recoil apparatus. Of these, 880 of a total of 381 were delivered after Nov. 11.

All the items mentioned, of which a considerable proportion represents after-the-war delivery, required long preparation before manufacture could be begun. Besides constituting a valuable reserve for another war, the War Department pointed out, the material would be a total waste if it were not finished.

The War Department has terminated by cancellation since November 9 all but $350,000,000 worth of contracts originally totaling $5,650,000,000. Ordnance material represents the largest single part of the remaining contracts—$138,975,000.

TO RAISE BUILDING FUND

(By United Press.)

Terre Haute, June 3.—The Terre Haute Labor Temple association today opened a carnival for the benefit of a building fund to be used in erecting a home for organized labor. The building is to be four stories high, will contain an auditorium with a capacity for seating 3,000 and will cost at least $250,000. The fund now amounts to $40,000. The carnival was advertised as "free from shammy shows, gambling and confetti."

Janesville Two-Row Cultivator

WHEN you sit comfortably on the easy riding Janesville Two-Row, and see every plant in every row getting exactly the cultivation you want it to have, you think what a blessing it is that you have a machine to do all that work. The old timers would think so if they could see you getting over the field so rapidly, and doing the work better than they ever did.

The Janesville Floating Arches solve the problem. They are hung by pendulums from the top bar and swing from side to side with a pendulum movement. You widen or narrow the gangs in the row with your feet. Or lock them at any width desired.

The shovels naturally follow the rows, but you can shift them to either side so quickly and so easily that you can hoe every hill without stopping the team.

Your own weight on the seat bars acts as a lever to turn the wheels slightly up hill—this big advantage takes the down-hill creep out of side-hill plowing. The entire machine is light, compact, flexible—no oiling needed except in wheel boxes.

Cultivate with a Janesville Two-Row—and you will forget that there ever was hard work in cultivation.
